$1000 REWARD

Is offered as a guarantee that neither

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

NOR

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

contains alcohol, opium, or any harmful drug. Any one publishing false statements concerning their ingredients will be prosecuted. Doctor Pierce's Family Remedies are compounds of medicinal principles, scientifically extracted from native roots that cure the diseases for which they are recommended. They are medicines which have enjoyed the public confidence for over a third of a century. They are medicines not beverages, made to satisfy a craving for "booze."

"Golden Medical Discovery" regulates and invigorates stomach, liver and bowels, and cures dyspepsia, purifies the blood and tones up the system generally.

"Favorite Prescription" cures female weakness, irregularities, exhausting drains, painful periods and kindred ailments peculiar to women. Accept no substitute for these medicines, each of which has a record of marvelous cures. Substitution means selfishness on the part of the dealer who is looking for the greater profit on an inferior article.

"Our daughter who was attending college became very nervous and we were advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. M. C. Fox, of 57 E. Leonard St., Grand Rapids, Mich. "We did so and then you advised us to get the 'Golden Medical Discovery' also. She took four bottles of the 'Prescription' and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and you never saw such a change in a person. She said she did not feel like the same person. She was about seventeen years old at the time. I will gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to every one. I advise parents who have young daughters who suffer from nervous troubles to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at once. I am sure it will help them."

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $50,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Strange Predicament of Doctor.

Dr. Arthur St. Clair Kundsen, a member of the Harvard and City Clubs and socially well-known in New York, was found early yesterday without his clothing, on top of a car of a freight train on the New York Central Railroad near the city limits of Yonkers.

He was taken immediately to St. Joseph's Hospital, as he was suffering from exposure and was thought to be in a critical condition. All the information the physicians could get from him was that the last thing he remembered he was riding in a cab in Broadway. He said he had just returned from a trip to Japan.

About the same time that the physician was picked up a policeman found clothing, said to be his, lying on the grass along the Speedway, under the Washington bridge.

The police of New York and Yonkers are greatly puzzled over the case, and say it is one of the most mysterious they have had to deal with in a long time. Different theories are advanced to account for the doctor's condition. One of them is that he may have been drugged, taken in a cab to the lonely spot where his clothing was fonnd, stripped of his attire and then thrown into the river. Brought to consciousness by the cold water, it is thought he may have struggled to the other shore, climbed on the bank and then got on to a passing freight train.

Another theory is that he might have made an attempt upon his life while suffering from temporary aberration of the mind. The police suggested that possibly he took off his clothes, then climbed up to the bridge, walked across and jumped over, but instead of plunging into the river landed on a freight car. The tracks pass under the bridge at this point. But opponents of this theory put forth the argument that a fall from the bridge to the top of a freight train would have severely injured, if not killed, the man. Detectives were immediately put to work on the case in an attempt to clear up the mystery surrounding it.

Prince Troubetskoy's Funeral.

The body of Prince Troubetskoy was conveyed to the Nikolai station in St, Petersburg yesterday for removal to Moscow. A great multitude and deputations of students followed the procession. When the funeral party was nearing the station squadrons of gendarmes appeared, and almost at the same moment a revolver shot rang out from the crowd, causing a panic. The gendarmes drew their swords and charged and dispersed the crowd, the mourners and spectators leaving quietly in all directions. The gendarmes did not use their swords and, as far as can be ascertained, no one was injured.

Among the wreaths laid on the coffin of the dead reformer was one of natural orchids from Emperor Nicholas.

Red-flag demonstrations in the Nevsky Prospect yesterday afternoon drew out immense crowds of spectators, but a squadron of gendarmes and Cossacks drove the demonstrators away from that place without resorting to force.

There were no disturbances in the industrial quarter of the city. Large forces of troops were held in readiness in the courtyards of the barracks and in the squares in various parts of the city to deal with any disorder.

From the Nevsky Prospect a band of students and workmen, carrying red flags and chanting revolutionary songs, marched across the river and began an open-air meeting in the square in front of the university. While the speeches were in progress the police again charged and dispersed the crowds. In the melee a workman and a student received saber cuts. The crowd took refugee in the university buildings and the meeting was continued there without being disturbed by the police.

During the annual school festival of the Fifth Gymnasium yesterday members of the audience began to hiss the national hymn. A panic ensued and the excitement was augumented by the explosion of giant firecrackers. Many persons were bruised in the rush, but no one was severely injured.

An Eagle in the Funnel.

An American eagle, measuring a little more than four feet from tip to tip, was removed from one of the smokestacks of the Sioux City, Iowa, Traction Company after a desperate struggle. The smokestack had not been used for several days. When the fires were started in the boiler the draft was not good. Nothing could be found wrong with the furnace and so the smokestack was examined. The bird was lodged in the smokestack near the bottom. It had slid down 80 feet and was so cramped up that it could not make use of its wings to fly. Several men entered the smokestack at the bottom, only to come out covered with scratches and soot. Finally one of the employees succeeded in getting the bird by the feet and dragging it out.

Frightful Suffering Relieved

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drugstore, guaranteed.

CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Miss Emma Cole Says that Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Saved Her Life and Made Her Well

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

Miss Emma Cole

Girls' modesty and oversensitiveness often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, because they withhold their confidence at this critical period.

A mother should come to her child's aid and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change and start the menstrual period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Miss Emma Cole of Tullahoma, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I want to tell you that I am enjoying better health than I have for years, and I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years I had soreness and pain in my side, headaches and was dizzy and nervous, and doctors all failed to help me.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be a help to other girls who are passing from girlhood to womanhood, for I know your Compound will do as much for them."

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice ask her to write Mrs Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to a strong healthy and happy womanhood.

Shuts Off Flavored Tipples.

Regarding the construction to be placed on the recent ruling of his office on alcoholic compounds labeled and sold as medicines, Internal Revenue Commissioner Yerkes said last Friday:

"The ruling does not apply to toilet articles, whatever the quantity of alcohol contained therein may be; nor does it apply to the various essences or extracts of lemon, vanilla, cinnamon, etc., if these preparations are such as are known to the legitimate grocery or drug trade as household articles for culinary and other uses, and not as beverages.

"Where, however, alcoholic compounds called 'essences of lemon, vanilla or cinnamon,' or so-called tinctures or essences of ginger 'contain a mere trifle of medicament, the main constituent being alcohol,' and these preparations are 'usually sold by country merchants, especially in prohibition districts,' are found by the local internal revenue officer or agents to be generally sold or used as beverages, every merchant thus selling them without holding the requisite special tax stamp as a liquor dealer under the internal revenue laws will be liable to criminal prosecution in addition to the assessment against him of special tax and penalty."

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Faith Not Necessary.

You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is curing hunereds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co. 461 King street.

MONDAY EVENING. OCT. 16, 1905.

THE Interchurch Conference on Federation, which will meet in Carnegie Hall, New York, November 15, has aroused much interest in religious circles throughout the country. The object of the conference is to discuss the possibilities of one great united church. Seventeen denominations, whose aggregate membership is 15,000,000 persons, have appointed delegates to take part in the discussion. The men who will take part in the conference are leading ministers and laymen. Among the speakers will be President Roosevelt and Justices Harlan and Brewer, of the Supreme Court of the United States. The conference will close with a banquet on the evening of November 21. Should President Roosevelt play a conspicuous part in amalgamating the many branches of the Christian Church into one body he would prove to be a universal as well as a national benefactor. The prospect, however, is gloomy. The President is credited with bringing to a close one of the bloodiest wars in the history of the planet, but he will find men are not so ready to lay down ecclesiastical preferences or prejudices. As time goes on sects multiply, and from the little band left without a visible head at the dawn of the present era a great tree has grown which has sent forth roots and branches in every direction.

COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS J. E. B. STUART, of Newport News, has replied to the communication he received from the chamber of commerce of that city in regard to the falling off in the business of that port. Mr. Stuart gave that as the reason for his action in dropping democratic inspectors from the custom house. The chamber investigated the assertion, and found that the export business had increased over 20 per cent. and the import business 105 per cent. in a year. Mr. Stuart says in effect that if the statement of the chamber is correct, he does not know it. Well, this is no surprise to people who know Mr. Stuart, for they know that when he left the U. S. Marshal's office, he knew no more about the affairs of that office than he did on the day he entered it. Mr. Stuart's right place in this world is under some one who does know something. Why, Mr. Stuart did not know he was a republican till he was defeated for office in a democratic primary.

THE ACTION of the "judges" in refusing Edgar Allan Poe a tablet in the Hall of Fame in the New York University has caused surprise, not only in this country, but in Europe. The London Spectator, commenting on the rejection of Poe when Whittier was selected, says:

The preference of Whittier to Poe is remarkable if literary genius is to be taken as a test of merit. It seems to indicate that character is regarded as an indispensible passport to the Hall of Fame, which in that case would be more truly styled the "Hall of Worthies."

It can be added that Stonewall Jackson was also rejected by the "judges," while some federal generals, whose names will be forgotten with the present generation, have been awarded tablets in that hall. Who are these "judges" anyway? It appears that to them few men born south of Mason and Dixon's line have ever become famous.

THE assembled bankers in Washingtod last week found no difficulty in reaching a conclusion in favor of the payment of ship subsides; but they couldn't agree on the question of currency reform. This, says the Philadelphia Record recalls a a story told of Senator Morgan, of Alabama, who is given to the utterance of long-winded speeches. Asked how long he could talk at a stretch, he said: "On any subject I thoroughly understand I can talk for two or three years; but given a subject I know nothing about I can talk on indefinitely." The bankers were most effusive on the subject where they were least instructed.

THE STATEMENT that Vice Admiral Togo worshiped at Ize Temple is creating a profound impression throughout Japan. It is believed that his act will furnish a lasting example in national religious education, and that ancestral worship will be given fresh stimulation, especially in the army and navy. Admiral Togo has shown his implicit faith in what he said in his report of the great naval battle, when he attributed the Japanese victory to the protection of the spirits of imperial ancestors. The example set by Togo will doubtless prove a serious impediment to missionary work in the Mikado's kingdom.

THE U. S. Supreme Court today decided the Georgia "chain-gang" case in favor of the State of Georgia. Henry Jamison, colored, had been sentenced to the chain-gang by the recorders' court. Judge Speer, of the U. S. District Court, released the negro on the ground that the penalty was too severe for so trivial an offense. The Supreme Court, by remanding the case with an order to quash the writ and dismiss the petition, held that the United States Court had no right to interfere with the State court in the matter. This is another victory in the highest court in the land for State's rights.

DURING the week just closed, there have been twenty-six homicides in Mississippi. In some counties the inhabitants seem to have a homicidal mania, and human life has become so cheap that men are murdered on the public roads and city highways without a pang of conscience or fear of the consequences. Violence seems to be covering other parts of the world as well as Mississippi, as murders and suicides take up much space in all newspapers.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, in his coming annual report, will recommend that bonds be issued to the amount of $60,000,000, running for a period of thirty years, covering the outlay already made on the Panama canal. Congress will be asked to pass the necessary legislation. Secretary Shaw proceeds on the theory that the present generation should not be required to pay a disproportionately large share of the cost. Of the total thus far expended $40,000,000 was paid to the Panama Canal Co.; $10,000,000 was appropriated for the inauguration of the work now in progress. Before the canal is completed, not less than $200,000,000 will have been expended and it is the opinion of Secretary Shaw that for this generation to pay practically one-third of the total is more of a burden than it should bear. By issuing bonds for the money already expended the hole which has been eaten into the treasury will be filled up again, and the talk of a threatened deficit will disappear for a number of years. It will put a period to the discussion of tariff revision from the standpoint of a needed revenue raiser. It is important in one other sense in the opinion of Secretary Shaw. It will make clear, to future generations, at a glance, what the work has cost. By including the $60,000,000 in the total of the bonds to be issued, there will never be any question as to cost, for the amount of bonds issued will answer that question automatically.

Arguments will be heard in the Supreme Court today upon which hangs the fate of George E. Green, former member of the New York State Senate, charged with conspiracy in connection with the postal frauds. The case, combining three cases, comes up on appeal from the district court of the United States for the northern district of New York. The appeal is from an order of of the district court, entered April 4, 1905, dismissing writs of habeas corpus and certioraria obtained by Senator Green, and remading him to the custody of United States Marshal Clinton D. McDougall, for removal to the District of Columbia for trial. The crime with which Green is charged is conspiracy, with George W. Beavers, former general superintendent of the division of salaries and allowances in the Postoffice Department, to perpetrate a fraud on the United States in connection with the sale, to the United States, of a certain device called the "Bundy Recorder," or "Time Clock," for use in the Postoffice Department. Senator Green was arrested at Binghamton, N. Y., on November 9, 1903.

Free trade for the inhabitants of the Philippine Islands seems to be a promise of the near future. During the last few days the President has had consultations with a number of Senators and Representatives who made the trip to the Philippines and has found that practically all of them are in favor of greatly reducing the height of the tariff wall which the products of the islanders must climb before they can enter our markets. This morning Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, one of the leaders of the House, told the President that nothing short of free trade ought to be granted the Filipinos. "I do not see any reason why they should not be treated like the Porto Ricans or any of our people. They are ours and they are going to remain ours. Under the present conditions they are in a bad way and we must help them out of their distress. We have got to give them the 'square deal;' that is all there is to it."

Representative William Alden Smith, of Michigan, who has just returned from a trip abroad, called upon the President this morning to tell him about his tour and to convey to him the sentiments expressed by Emperor William upon the President's achievement for peace. "The Emperor said that the President deserved all the credit for the peace brought about between Russia and Japan and would be given it by the world."

In his annual report, just received by the War Department, Brigadier General Thomas H. Barry, commanding the department of the gulf, follows the other department commanders and makes an urgent recommendation for the re-establishment of the army canteen. General Barry reports that marvelous results have been obtained by the artillery troops in his department in their target practice with big guns. He thinks and so recommends that the pay of the enlisted men of the artillery should be increased.

Representative Gardiner, of Massachusetts, accompanied by Mr. Jacob H. Smith, who represented the fishermen of Gloucester, Mass., was at the State Department today for the purpose of conferring with Secretary Root on the alleged refusal of the authorities of Newfoundland to allow American fishermen to fish for herring in the Bay of Islands on the West coast of Newfoundland. It is believed by Secretary Root and Mr. Gardiner that there has been a misunderstanding of the situation on the part of the Massachusetts fishermenn or some local official in Newfoundland.

A drastic executive order prohibiting any officer of the government from instructing anyone preparing for examination by the Civil Service Commission, was issued today by the State Department by order of the President. It reads as follows:

"No officer or employee of the government shall, directly or indirectly, instruct or be concerned in any manner in the instruction of any person or classes of persons, with a view to their special preparation for the examinations of the U. S. Civil Service Commission. The fact that any officer or employee is found so engaged shall be considered sufficient cause for his removal from the service.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT"

The sweeping character of this order is a subject of considerable comment here. Under its terms a father who happens to be in the government employ would not be permitted to assist his children in their studies if they contemplated taking a civil service examination.

Rear Admiral R. D. Evans, commanding the north Atlantic fleet, accompanied by his chief of staff, Captain John F. Pillsbury, was at the State and Navy departments today for the purpose of making final arrangements for the entertainment of Prince Louis of Battenberg and his fleet. Admiral Evans said that the arrangements were progressing very satisfactorily.

The Japan-American Society will invite Mr. Bryan to address its members at the Young Men's Hall October 17. Count Okuma will preside at this assemblage.

W. Scott Hancock was arrested at Hyattsville Prince George's county, Md., Saturday evening, accused of being accessory to the death of Emma Smallwood, a white servant in the Hancock family. Following the arrest have been a number of sensational developments. At 9 o'clock last night a warrant was sworn out for Mrs. Amanda Mackall, Hancock's sister, whom the police charge with having been an accessory to the crime. Hancock, is a son of Col. John Hancock, chief of the Stationery Department of the United States Pension Office, and nephew of the late Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock, U. S. A.

Fatal Result of Duel.

Two of the three Italians shot Saturday afternoon at Paw Paw, W. Va., by John Price, of that place, in a pistol duel at the depot, are dead and the condition of the other man is very serious.

Frank Ficco, who was shot in the head died on the train on the way to Cumberland. G. Dalessandro, interpreter for the Italians, who was shot in the left lung, died at the Cumberland Hospital yesterday morning, and Clemento Ronollee is still at the hospital, where an operation was found to be necessary.

Price is now in jail at Berkeley Springs. It has been ascertained that someone besides Price shot at the Italians. An unknown man on the end of the rear coach also shot into the mob that was after Price. In jail yesterday Price admitted that he shot at two men and was sure he hit one, but he did not shoot at three. Bystanders say that another man besides Price helped to do the shooting. Price was run from the smoker by at least a dozen Italians flourishing revolvers and knives. The third man shot was 50 feet away from the two at whom Price emptied five shots. Price says the trouble was started by an Italian with whom he had had some difficulty six weeks ago and whom he knocked down yesterday for offering an insult. This aroused the other Italians.

Murder and Suicide.

While driving in a hack from a hotel to a railroad station in Sioux City, Iowa, yesterday afternoon, E. H. Darrow, sixty years old, shot and killed his son's wife, Lillian Darrow, and then shot himself dead in the same place, the right temple.

The hack driver, without stopping to investigate, drove to a police station. Both occupants of the carriage were found sitting upright on opposite seats, dead.

The cause of the murder and suicide has not developed. E. H. Darrow and his daughter-in-law went to the Arcade Hotel on October 10, registering as "E. H. Darrow and wife." They went away, but returned again Saturday, and yesterday afternoon started for the railroad station, ostensibly to take a train for Sioux Falls, the home of Mr. Darrow's son.

Letters were found on the woman's body, unsigned, but apparently from her husband, indicating that they had had trouble. The writer of the letters protested undying love for the woman, and said that he was dying of a broken heart.

Fire totally or partially destroyed a large factory, three dwellings and damaged two apartment houses this afternoon in the mill department of the Newark, N. J., Door Company.

Virginia News.

Dr. Vernon G. Culpeper, of Portsmouth, died yesterday afternoon.

Samuel R. Richardson, son of County Treasurer M. C. Richardson, died suddenly yesterday in Front Royal.

Edwin T. Booton, for several years judge of the Page county court, died at his home in Luray yesterday evening, aged about forty-five years.

Mr. Ralph W. Kincheloe and Miss Sarah E. Nash were married last week in the Baptist Church at Dumfries, Rev. A. T. Lynn, of Stafford county, officiating.

Rev. Robert W. Forsyth, of Camden, N. J., has accepted a call to the pastorate of St. Paul's Church, Richmond, and will enter upon his work December 1st. Mr. Forsyth is now rector of St. Paul's Church, Camden.

The Richmond Horse Show closed Saturday night in a blaze of glory, with the best classes of the show in the ring and a crowd that exceeded by 2,000 any attendance of the week. The show was a success in every particular.

Charles G. Sharp, aged 75 years, for many years a well-known and leading lawyer of Norfolk, was found dead in bed Saturday. The deceased was formerly a man of large means, but of late years his wealth had gradually become less.

In the Floyd county courthouse will begin today the trial of John Richards, a former school-teacher and law student at the University of Virginia, who is accussed of the murder of Maurice Francis, his rival for the hand of a young lady.

The Rev. W. C. Bitting has resigned the pastorate of the Mount Morris Baptist Church, New York, to accept a call from the Second Baptist Church of St. Louis. Mr. Bitting is a son of the late Rev. W. C. Bitting, who formerly lived in this city.

The meeting of the State democratic committee in Richmond Saturday night resulted in a fiasco. There was not a quorum present, as had been anticipated. The meeting was called for the purpose of considering the petition of the Norfolk county straightouts for a reconsideration of their long prolonged fight against the fusion element of the party.

At West Point, N. Y., Saturday the Army football team was defeated by the Virginia Polytechnic team by a score of 16 to 6. At Richmond the University of Virginia were defeated Saturday afternoon by the redskins from Carlisle. The Indians outclassed the Virginians at every point of the game, and forced them to work on the defensive throughout the hour of play. The final score was 12 to 0 in the Indians' favor.

The Court of Appeals Saturday granted a writ of error, through Judge Keith, to the receivers of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, of Richmond, which had been fined for declining to sell half-rate tickets to students at a business college. The fine was imposed in the Police Court, the judgment of which was confirmed by the hustings court. The final decision of the matter is one of interest, as it involves the question of who is entitled to half-fare.

Preparations made in Richmond for the protection of the President are the most thorough possible. From the time he leaves his train at noon next Wednesday until he starts south seven hours later he will be surrounded by a detail of the Richmond Howitzers, armed to the teeth. Each man will carry a drawn sabre and a loaded pistol and each has been chosen especially for his coolness and his ability as a marksman. They have been instructed by their captain to look constantly after the safety of the President, and to shoot straight if it becomes necessary to shoot at all.

Giants Win the Series.

New York's National League ball team is now the undisputed champion of the world. Before 24,187 people who cheered like maniacs from start to finish, they won the fifth game of the series Saturday at the Polo Grounds. It was the Giants' fourth victory over the Athletics, the winners of the American League pennant. The score was 2 to 0. One of the most curious features of the series just concluded—incidentally the most remarkable in the history of baseball—was that not in a single game was the losing team able to score a run. In the first contest at Philadelphia the Giants won, 3 to 0. The same score was hung up at the conclusion of the second game played in New York Tuesday, and which was won by the Athletics. The third game—won by the New Yorks at Philadelphia on Thursday—resulted in a score of 9 to 0. The Giants took the fourth game Friday at the Polo Grounds, 1 to 0, while Saturday's contest was another shut-out. Mathewson pitched for the Giants and was in his usual incomparable form. Bender, who proved such a puzzle to the New Yorkers on Tuesday, again twirled for the Philadelphia team, and although beaten pitched a fine game.

The total attendance at the five games played was 91,638. After deducting expenses the division of the receipts will net the winning players $1,152.54 each and the losers $369.

Letter to Worth Hulfish.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: Have you found-out you can paint a job with fewer gallons Devoe than of anything else, lead-and-oil or anything else?

Mr. Floyd Almy, House and Sign Painter, Greenwich, N. Y., found it out three years ago; he writes. "I have used Devoe lead-and-zinc for the past three years, and cannot say too much in its favor. I am using it now on a big job that I took by contract, and it has saved me at least $25 in the cost of material."

Devoe is the strongest paint we know of; goes furthest; takes less of it to do your job.

Lead-and-oil is pure; lead-and-zinc is stronger; covers more; goes further.

Have you found-out you can paint a gallon Devoe in less time than a gallon of anything else? Less time; less money.

Less paint; less money for that; less time, less money for that. Devoe lasts longer; do you mind the less money for that? You are surer of it.

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & CO
73 New York

P. S.—E. S. Leadbeater & Sons sell our paint.

DIED.

On October 15, 1905, at 10:45 p. m., at her parents' residence, 414 Queen street, GLADYS C. R. EBHARDT, aged 19 months and 1 day,

Our little Gladys now is gone,
Her tiny spirit's fled;
Our little darling we loved so well
Is sleeping with the dead.

The tears within her father's eye,
Her mother's breaking heart,
Can only tell the agony
How hard it is to part.

Funeral tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at 3 o'clock.

Today's Telegraphic News

FROM RICHMOND.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., Oct. 16.—The business sections of Broad and Main streets are fairly wrapped in U. S. flags in honor of the President's visit next Wednesday and the affair promises to be a success in every respect. The railroads expect an immense crowd from nearby cities and intermediate points.

The Alexandria county matter is to be heard before Judge Waddill at four o'clock tomorrow.

Royal Divorce Suit.

Gotha, Germany, Oct. 16.—The trial of the suit of Prince Philip, of Coburg, for a divorce from the Princess Louise, daughter of King Leopold, of Belgium, has begun here and promises to be replete with sensations. In his petition Prince Philip alleges adultery and desertion on the part of Louise, as well as numerous other indiscretions and irregularities. Princess Louise is also seeking a decree on the ground of cruelties practiced upon her by her husband, including her five years incarceration in a madhouse. Dr. Vizontai, a member of the Hungarian parliament, is Louise's attorney. In an interview today, he stated: "If my client has committed any indiscretions she was driven to such acts by the corrupt atmosphere of the Austrian court. I intend, in the trial, to reveal the ruthlessly immoral influences directed against her when she went Vienna as a young wife. I intend to call the King of England, the Austrian Emperor, Ferdinand of Bulgaria, and many other royalties and grand dukes as witnesses." A great deal of interest is being manifested in the trial and it is expected that some astonishing revelations will be made, especially as Louise's attorney seems determined to bring them out in the hearing. Princess Louise first came into prominence about eight years ago when her relations with Lieutenant Matasish-Keglivitch, of the Austrian army, caused her husband and relatives to place a close restraint upon her. She remained in asylums until August, 1904, when she escaped from her attendants, through the assistance of Keglivitch and her physician. She was examined as to her sanity, and the physicians pronounced in her favor.

Conditions in St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 16.—As the result of the action taken by the police yesterday in quelling the demonstrations which occurred in connection with the removal of the body of Prince Troubeskoi, the students and workmen are greatly agitated, and it is feared that more trouble may result. The police entered the institute of mining engineering and dispersed a meeting which was in progress. Such a thing is unheard of in the annals of Russian history, and has aroused a great deal of indignation.

An imperial ukase has been issued excluding Grand Duke Cyril, between whom and the Russian throne there are only three lives, from the Russian navy because of his marriage to his cousin Victoria, the divorced wife of the Grand Duke of Seiss. Announcement of this wedding, which had been forbidden by the Czar, was made at Munich on October 5, and aroused a great deal of interest because of the prominence of the parties, as well as owing to the emperor's opposition. Grand Duke Cyril went to Port Arthur during the war between Russia and Japan, and served as first officer under Admiral Makaroff. He took part in the battle when Makaroff lost his life, and saved himself by swimming. He had loved the Grand Duchess Victoria for a long time, and even the imperial command not to marry her did not prevent him from doing so. The expulsion from the navy is the direct result of his act in making the Grand Duchess his wife.

Water Famine in Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 16.—By the bursting of a supply pipe in Niagara street the worst water famine ever experienced in Buffalo prevails this morning. The entire west side is without water, and the situation is most deplorable. Not a drop of water has been had in the houses of 150,000 persons since 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. This morning those who had ice melted it to secure water for making coffee and for washing their hands and faces. Great suffering in the hospitals and other institutions is reported. In many instances the people in the afflicted districts drank milk and those living near the river and canal carried water in buckets to their homes. Hundreds of men and women who work down town and are compelled to leave at an early hour, appeared at their places of business with unwashed faces and empty stomachs. The restaurants, as a result, did a rushing business. A large territory in the vicinity of the break in the water main was flooded. Cellars were filled with water and streets became like small rivers.

Prince Ferdinand in Paris.

Paris, Oct. 16.—Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria arrived in Paris this morning on an official visit to France, and is being entertained at the foreign office It is expected that during his visit to France, important conferences in regard to Balkan questions will be held. Prince Ferdinand, who is now receiving royal honors at the hands of the nation, is a grandson of France's deposed king, Louis Philippe.

Baron Komura in Tokio.

Tokio, Oct. 16.—Baron Komura, Japan's ranking plenipotentiary at the Portsmouth conference, where peace with Russia was established, arrived here this morning on his return from the United States. No enthusiasm was manifested on his return by the people. The streets through which he passed were strongly guarded.

Act Repealed.

Stockholm, Sweden, Oct. 16.—The Riksdag today unanimously passed the bill introduced by the government repealing the act of union with Norway and altering the flag of Sweden.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Another Victim of Malpractice.

New York, Oct. 16.—Found dying in a squalid tenement at No. 401, east 82nd street, a strikingly beautiful young woman was hurried to the Presbyterian hospital today, where, in an ante mortem statement to Coroner Scholer, she admitted that she belonged to a family of wealth and prominence, but refused all information about herself lest her family be humiliated by her misfortunes. The girl went to the tenement on Wednesday last and rented a small furnished flat. She did not mix with the neighbors, and no one called to see her. Late yesterday the tenants in the house were attracted by her groans and last night, despite her pleadings not to do so, Dr. Goldstein was summoned. He saw at once that the girl was a victim of illegal medical practice, hurried her to the hospital and notified the coroner. Very little information that official got from her. But she told enough to warrant his asking for the arrest of Mrs. Lena Scott, a midwife, of No. 227 east 82nd street, who was later taken into custody. She had been arrested on four previous occasions in connection with the deaths of young women, and in every instance she has succeeded in escaping punishment.

Liberals to Withdraw.

Havana, Oct. 16.—Members of the liberal party today justified the action of their convention yesterday in deciding to withdraw from the coming presidential election by saying that no other course was left for them to pursue. At the same time that the decision not to participate in the election was reached liberals decided to inform the head of the party that they will not be responsible for any acts which may occur in the future. Manifestos will be published giving the reasons for this action. The proposition of withdrawing from the election was submitted some time ago, but its consideration was postponed to await developments. Liberals now state that in view of the colossal frauds committed in the registration it would be useless to continue the campaign.

Will Apply for Pardon.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 16.—Lawyer Cook will make application to the court of pardons for the release from State prison of J. Frank Cordova, the unfrocked Methodist minister, who was sentenced by Judge Strong to serve four years with costs, on convictions of assaulting and deserting his family. Cordova eloped twice with Miss Julia Bowne, who is now living with her family at Ocean Grove. The wife and children of the convicted pastor are with her sister, Mrs. O'Ber, at Shrewsbury. Lawyer Cook will make the application on the ground that he has already served sufficient time for the crime committed. He will also suggest that the sentence was excessive. Cordova was taken to prison by Sheriff Carman on April 3rd.

Assailant Committed.

Red Bank, N. J., Oct. 16.—Joseph Sweeney, of Shrewsbury, aged 65, who, it is alleged, assaulted 11-year-old Mary Kingsbury, on Saturday last, was arraigned before Justice Sickles this morning who committed him to the Freehold jail to await action of the grand jury. The child, it is alleged, was taking dinner to her father, Allan Kingsbury, who is employed in the Norford coal yard, Saturday morning, and when crossing the railroad track met Sweeney, who was intoxicated. The old man, it is charged, took the little girl to a fruit stand, bought her some fruit, and then took her into the woods, near the railroad track, and assaulted her. The man was pursued by some passersby, who heard the screams of the girl.

Attacked Colored Man.

They were committed to the Mount Holly jail this morning, to await the result of Johnson's injuries. The white men, it is believed, stood in the middle of the road and with drawn revolvers, threatened to kill the first person who appeared before them. When finally captured they were committed by Justice Joyce.

New York, Oct. 16.—When the legislative insurance investigating committee meets today, Richard A. Tokio, Oct. 16.—The treaty of peace with Russia went into effect today. Publication of the text of the treaty was made this afternoon. An order has been issued by Minister of War Terauchi instructing the Japanese soldiers in the field to refrain from criticising the terms of peace on the ground that the declarations both of war and peace are the outcome of the sovereign power. Those engaged in the military service are forbidden to criticise either subject. The Minister advises the soldiers to utilize the opportunity of peace, after the disbandment of their regiments, by returning to their former occupations, but to always hold themselves in readiness to join their colors at the emperor's command.

Tastes White Stuff and Dies.

Hazard, Ky., Oct. 19.—Picking up a pinch of white powder which three children had just eaten with fatal results, before going for a doctor for them, Marion Combes fell dead before walking a dozen yards. The powder was corrosive sublimate. The children who had died were the seven, four and two-year-old little ones of Jason Commetts, a veterinary surgeon, who used the poison in his buisness.

Yesterday he left a package of the poison on the bureau in his office while he answered a professional call several miles away from his home. The children found the package after his departure, and, evidently thinking it contained sugar, ate some of it. All of them were instantly killed, for their faces were not in the least distorted. Combes, who lived on an adjoining farm, called at Commett's house to secure his professional services, and found the children dead.

Piers Completed.

The piers for the railway bridges which will span the street running from 14th street to Water street, Washington near the Long bridge entrance, when the railway improvements at the foot of 14th street are completed have been finished, and the workmen are employed in filling in the deep excavations in which they were built. It is stated the construction of the new bridges will be started within the next few weeks and will be completed in a short time after the work on them is begun. Over these bridges all trains to and from the south will pass, and the grade crossing at the foot of 13½ street will be done away with. The new bridges, it is said, will be about fifteen feet above the street level and will give ample room for loaded wagons, which will largely use the new street, to pass under the bridges. The new structures will be of steel and will be supported by stone piers at each end and by two rows of steel columns in the center of the bridge. It is understood that four tracks will be laid on the new bridges to accommodate the freight and passenger traffic and the car-shifting work that goes on at that point.

A CARD.

Alexandria, Va., October 16, 1905.

To my friends and fellow citizens:

I deem it only appropriate to make this public acknowledgment of my gratitude to those loyal friends who so ardently and earnestly gave me their support in my contest for the Clerkship of the Corporation Court of this city. I shall ever entertain a deep sense of appreciation for their self-sacrificing efforts in my behalf. Their unselfish devotion to me and my cause has inexpressively touched me. I feel that I can never sufficiently recompense them for their many manifestations of confidence and esteem. No man ever had warmer, sincerer, truer friends than those who rallied to my aid. Defeat loses its sting in the contemplation of such a display of true friendliness. Victory could not have engendered a sensation more pleasant than that produced by the knowledge of the fact that 608 citizens of Alexandria endorsed by their votes the action of the court in conferring upon me the clerkship.

I accept graciously the result of the contest, and urge the democrats of the city to support the nominee.

With renewed thanks to you, my friends, for your cordial assis ance and sympathy, and promising to hold myself ready to serve my party as faithfully in the future as I have endeavored to do in the past,

I am yours sincerely,

CHARLES BENDHEIM

For Negro Education.

Representative Carter Glass of the sixth district, who is on the stump, in a speech a few days ago made the Statement that the white people of the State paid and are paying 96 per cent of the tax derived for the education of the colored children of the State. The figures are taken from the books of the auditor of the State and are vouched for as being correct. In order to give free books to the colored school children of the State it is believee that at least $200,000 would be required, and on the basis figured out by Representative Glass the whites would have to provide for all increases in their taxexs of $192,000 for the colored children, while the negroes would be called upon to contribute the sum of $8,000 for the education of their own children, in addition to their present taxes.

Accidentally Killed.

While hunting a hawk James M. Craner, 68 years of age and the owner of Cedar Grove, a historic old place just beyond the Masonic Home, in Henrico county, Va., was suddenly killed Saturday by the accidental discharge of a shotgun. So close was the weapon to his side when the explosion came that his clothing was almost entirely burned from his body. His wife and two children were with him a few moments after the accident, but life was already extinct. Mr. Craner went to Richmond from Indiana several years ago. He was a native of North Carolina.

The Duck and the Orator.

Some day, my child, I will take you out into the wide, green country and show you a young Pekin duck. He is an active little tyke, is the Pekin duckling, even when he doesn't date back farther than day before yesterday. When it comes to swimming he is a sight reader, and he is more destructive to tender grass than a young Nebuchadnezzar. But unfortunately he is so constructed and flat of back that if by any chance he gets turned wrong side up he cannot turn over again unaided, and unless help comes he lies there and paddles the air with his little feet until he fans himself to death. He is cheerful about it, though, and makes no outcry, apparently thinking that because his legs are working he is swimming along according to Hoyle.

My child, a little duck on his back and the average after dinner orator on his feet are both deserving of the sympathy which we should be ever ready to bestow on the unfortunate, and therefore we should sign all petitions that are presented to us looking to the establishment of a commission to turn little ducks over and loquacious gentlemen down in the hope that if they are prevented from paddling and gabbling themselves to death they may be of some use hereafter.—Tom Watson's Magazine.

A Birth Watch.

When a child is born in certain English towns there is a race for the health department, especially if the event has occurred in the poorer district. The reason for the haste is not a desire to see that the record of vital statistics is properly kept, but because there is a reward of a shilling to the one who is first to notify the health officer, provided this notification is given within forty-eight hours. As soon as the tip is received the mother is visited and given a printed slip with directions as to the best means of caring for the child, and the officer who makes the visit is expected to see that the directions are clearly understood.

A Whip in the Pulpit.

A writer in an English review tells a reminiscence of a brother of a famous dean of Christchurch. The brother was rector of a small parish. His eccentricity was somewhat remarkable. He was a famous whip and drove a splendid team, of which he was very proud. He was fond of showing off how he could flick a fly from either of his leaders' ears without touching the horse. This accomplishment he transferred to a rather unexpected locality, for he always carried his whip up into the pulpit with him, and woe to the unfortunate member of his congregation whom he detected nodding.

The Stork's Balancing.

No one has really seen a stork until he has watched him stand on one leg beside his nest. After one has seen this feat he is sure it was a stork. Nothing in the animal kingdom is more marvelous than the way this great bird can balance his long body on a piece of bone which is no thicker than a wheat stalk and to behold also the perfect ease with which he goes to sleep while still poised in this critical position.

MCNDAY EVENING, OCT. 16, 1905.

Answers For Napier.

Sir Charles Napier hated a man who had not an answer ready for him. He once asked Richard Burton, the explorer, how many bricks there were in a newly built bridge. Richard, knowing his foible, answered without hesitation, "Two hundred and twenty-nine thousand and ten, Sir Charles." He turned away and smiled. Another time he ordered a review on a grand scale to impress certain chiefs. "Lieutenant Burton, be pleased to inform these gentlemen that I propose to form these men into line, then to break into echelon by the right and to form square on the center battalion," and so on, for about five minutes, in military technical terms for which there were no equivalents in these men's dialects. "Yes, sir," said Richard, saluting. Turning to the chiefs, Richard said, "Oh, chiefs, our great man is going to show you the way we fight, and you must be attentive to the rules!" He then touched his cap to Sir Charles. "Have you explained all?" he asked. "Everything, sir," answered Richard. "A most concentrated language that must be," said Sir Charles, riding off with his nose in the air.

The Strongest King.

The strongest king on record, so the story goes, appears to have been Caius Julius Verus Maximus, the son of a Thracian peasant and emperor of Rome. It is related that with one of his fingers he stopped a chariot dashing by at full speed, that he could draw a loaded wagon, by a blow of his fist could break the hardest stones between his fingers and split trees with his hand. This redoubtable sovereign was eight feet high, and his wife's bracelets served him for finger rings. We have passed over Og, the king of Bashan, who, as the rabbis say, was nearly six miles high, drank water from the clouds and toasted fish by holding them up to the sun and who, when Noah refused him shelter in the ark, survived those troublous times by wading through the flood, which only reached to his knees, and of Atlas, king of Mauritania, who is said to have supported the world upon his shoulders.

A Bored Princess.

F. Leveson-Gower, long prominent in England, published a volume of reminiscences, in which he tells the story of Princess Lieven: "What the princess chiefly suffered from was intense boredom, which amounted almost to a disease. If nobody called during the afternoon, she would roll on the floor from ennui. On one occasion, when on her way from England, she got so much alarmed at the prospect of traveling from Calais to Paris alone that she offered a seat in her carriage to a respectable looking clergyman on board the steamer, which he joyfully accepted. When seated beside her, he talked so incessantly as to drive her wild. She could only relieve her feelings by putting her head out of the window and screaming out to the wind, 'Il m'ennuie—il m'ennuie!' (He fatigues me.)"

A Clever Ruse.

When Thurlow was lord chancellor of England he was much at outs with the bishop of London. The latter was visited one day by a clergyman who sought appointment to a fat living then vacant. He wanted a letter of recommendation to Lord Thurlow, but the bishop said such a letter was likely to do more harm than good. Nevertheless he wrote it. When Thurlow read the missive he said, "Well, as that scoundrel, the bishop of London, has introduced you, you won't get the living." "So the bishop said, my lord," was the meek reply. "Did the bishop say so?" roared Thurlow. "Then I'll prove him a liar, for you shall have the living." And he was as good as his word.

Good Both Ways.

Bishop Wilson of Calcutta, whose speeches are often quoted, had the happy faculty of saying the right thing at all times.

On one occasion two young people whose fathers were famous for their diverse and peculiar views on Biblical subjects came to see the bishop.

"Ah," said he as he greeted one, "your father wrote a great work on the Apocalypse. I congratulate you on being the daughter of such a man."

Then, turning to his other guest, he said: "And your father forbore to write about the Apocalypse—a wise forbearance. You are to be congratulated on having so wise a father."

A Bishop's Pun.

Henry Niles Pierce, Episcopal bishop of Arkansas, was as inveterate and clever a punster as the noted English divine, Sydney Smith. On one occasion a lady in expressing her admiration of his erudition exclaimed:

"Why, bishop, you are a perfect ocean of learning."

"No, madam," was the modest rejoinder, "I'm only a part of the see of Arkansas."

Worse Than East Africa.

The worst climate I have ever experienced is that of New York, which presents all the disadvantages of the arctic and torrid zones.—From "The East African Protectorate," by Sir Charles Elict.

Wise Daughter.

Father—If you paid more attention to cooking and less to dress, my dear, you would make a much better wife. Daughter—Yes, father. But who would marry me?

She Remembered.

"Come back for something you've forgotten, as usual?" said the husband.

"No," replied his wife sweetly, "I've come back for something I remembered."

He who expresses his willingness to die for a woman always reserves the right to fix the date of his demise.

Father—Robert, is it not about time that little boys were in bed? Robert (aged six, carelessly glancing at his watch)—Really, father, I must be excused from venturing an opinion. It is a subject in which I have little interest. I have no little boys, you know.

Fashionable Term.

"McBluff is suffering with rheumatism, I hear."

"No, he isn't suffering. He's got it, but he's quite proud and happy. His doctor calls it 'gout.'"—Philadelphia Press.

The Pain Part.

"Do you take pains with your eating?" asked the doctor.

"No," sadly replied the dyspeptic. "The pains don't come till afterward."—Philadelphia Record.

Still Worse.

Could Not be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Daredevil Ride

often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.
